

2. Second plea in law based on the internal legality of the Commission's decision. The applicants claim that the Commission infringed the applicants' right of access to documents by relying on incomplete and erroneous grounds. The applicants further argue that they rely on overriding public interests which justify access to the documents. Lastly, the applicants consider that the Commission infringed the principle of proportionality in that it went beyond what was necessary to achieve its objectives.

Action brought on 10 December 2021 — Euranimi v Commission

(Case T-769/21)

(2022/C 51/52)

Language of the case: English

Parties

Applicant: European Association of Non-Integrated Metal Importers & distributors (Euranimi) (Brussels, Belgium) (represented by: M. Campa, D. Rovetta, P. Gjørtler, V. Villante, lawyers)

Defendant: European Commission

Form of order sought

The applicant claims that the Court should:

- annul Commission Implementing Regulation (EU) 2021/1483 of 15 September 2021 imposing a definitive anti-dumping duty on imports of stainless steel cold-rolled flat products originating in the People's Republic of China and Taiwan following an expiry review pursuant to Article 11(2) of Regulation (EU) 2016/1036 of the European Parliament and of the Council;
- order the European Commission to bear applicant's and its own legal costs.

Pleas in law and main arguments

In support of the action to annul Commission Implementing Regulation (EU) 2021/1483 of 15 September 2021 (<sup>1</sup>), the applicant relies on three pleas in law.

1. First plea in law, alleging breach of Article 11(2) of Regulation (EU) 2016/1036 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 8 June 2016 (<sup>2</sup>) — manifest error of assessment by the Commission's services.
2. Second plea in law, alleging breach of Article 3(2) of Regulation (EU) 2016/1036 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 8 June 2016 with regard to the injury and causation assessment for both Chinese and Taiwanese products — manifest error of assessment.
3. Third plea in law, alleging breach of Article 2(6a) of Regulation (EU) 2016/1036 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 8 June 2016, concerning the legal status of the Report by which the European Commission establishes the existence of significant market distortions in a certain country or a certain sector in that country and use of such reports for the dumping determination.
